Is returned to a stable, and ringing with oaths For ruin and rapine, and murder and wrath, Still follow, like demons, War's desolate path.

THERE IS NO DEATH.

There is no death! The stars go down To rise upon some fairer shore; And bright in Heaven's jeweled crown They shine forevermore.

There is no death! The dust we tread To golden grain or mellow fruit,

The granite rocks disorganize To feed the hungry moss they bear ; The forest leaves drink daily life From out the viewless air,

There is no death! The leaves may fall, The flowers may fade and pass away --They only wait, through wintry hours, The coming of the May.

There is no death! An angel form Walks o'er the earth with silent tread, He bears our best loved things away, And then we call them " dead."

He leaves our hearts all desolate-He plucks our fairest, sweetest flowers; Transplanted into bliss, they now Adorn immortal bowers.

The bird-like voice whose joyous tones Made glad this scene of sin and strife, Sings now its everlasting song

And where he sees a smile too bright, Of hearts too pure for taint and vice, He bears it to that world of light, To dwell in Paradise.

Amid the tree of life.

Born into that undying life, They leave us but to come again; With joy we welcome them-the same, Except in sin and pain.

And ever near us, though unseen, The dear immortal spirits tread; For all the boundless Universe Is life-There are no dead.

.... FINISH THY WORK Finish thy work; the time is short;

The sun is in the west ; The night is coming down-till then Think not of rest. Yes, finish all thy work, then rest;

Till then, rest never; The rest prepared for thee by God Is rest forever. Finish thy work, then wipe thy brow;

Ungird thee from thy toil; Take breath, and from each weary limb Shake off the soil. Finish thy work, then sit thee down

On some celestial hill. And of its strangth-reviving air Take thou thy fill.

Finish thy work, then take thy harp, Give praise to God above : Sing a new song of mighty joy And endless love.

Give thanks to Him who held thee up In all thy path below, Who made the faithful unto death, And crowns thee now.
